ANNUAL REPORT - C.Frisbie, Past-President

Happy Winter! We capped off a busy 2009 with our Annual Meeting in January of this year.

WILLIAM VAN BEYNUM AWARDS: The meeting began with presentations of our first annual awards. (See pg. 4 for additional article)

Community Involvement: Ben Srb was commended for his donation of time, energy, ingenuity, equipment and the volunteering of his employees to move the Corn Crib donated by the Mattabeseck Audubon Society to its new position behind the Ruth Callander House.

Society Volunteers: Recognized were Ruth Freeburg, Bill Frisbie, Phyllis Frisbie and Claire Frisbie. Ruth Freeburg, who has just stepped down after spending 17 years as our Executive Board Secretary, has also been our interface with the Brownstone Quorum and Hemlock Grange, and an important part of the House Committee, Tag Sale, Spring Tea and numerous other Society projects, along with work at the Society's museum. Bill Frisbie has been Membership Chair, along with key roles in the Tag Sale, Exhibits, Newsletter and many other projects, a member of the House Committee and docent at the Society's museum. Phyllis Frisbie has been Exhibit Chair and designer, Editor of the Society's Newsletter, Publicity Chair, member of the Tag Sale and House Committees, and docent at the Society's museum.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS: Bill Willinsky of Veterans Affairs has collected the names of 198 Portland Veterans of the Civil War and would like suggestions as to how they should be honored in town, now that veterans of most other wars are commemorated. There will be a meeting of Veterans Affairs at the American Legion Hall on February 16. All with thoughts on this are welcome to attend or contact Bill Willinsky directly.

ORAL NARRATIVES DONATED: Three Wesleyan students, Michelle Garcia, Morgan Hamill, Sarah Tracy-Wanck, represented Professor Indira Karamcheti and the students of ENGL247: Oral Histories and the Port- land Brownstone Quarries, as they presented, to the Society, a set of seven CD's containing the Oral Narratives produced by the class during interviews of nine Portland residents about the quarries: their impact on the town, their future, the way the town's identity has been shaped by their presence, and other topics. Residents interviewed were Alison Guinness, Kristof Henning, Joe Siefertman, Jack Dillon, Anna Fairbank, Bob McDougall, Jeanne Dilworth, Mike Meehan and Bill Barrows. Students created oral narratives for presentation, often with photographic accompaniment. This valuable historic information now becomes part of the material preserved in the museum's archives.

On August 21, 2009, Ben Srb, Scott Harmon and Primary Landscaping moved this Corn Crib from the Hedstrom-Carlson Farm to the Ruth Callander House.

RUTH CALLANDER HOUSE MUSEUM OF PORTLAND HISTORY: It was another busy acquisitions year with over 1200 items added to our inventory list. In 19 openings, the Museum received 246 visitors during 2009. In addition, Society volunteers made 423 visits on 156 days to work at the Museum. Exhibits: Sue Anderson's terrific Farms exhibit wrapped up half way through the year and the Exhibit Committee has created an overview on 1800's Portland including artifacts and photographs from the brownstone quarries, local industries, businesses and business men, and households of the era, along with the Portland Origins and Minerals collections.

HISTORIC SITES: Our attempt to save the buildings on the old Elmcrest property was unsuccessful but we attracted enough attention to cause the Portland Planning and Zoning Commission to pass a new regulation for Adaptive Reuse of specific Historic properties in the future; and to involve the Portland Historical Society in the process of future review.

PROGRAMS: Regina Woltmann has managed to fill another year with interesting and informative historic programs, and has another year on tap. See the back of this newsletter for upcoming events. If anyone has information on or interest in specific programs, please contact Regina at portlandhistsoc@yahoo.com.

RUTH CALLANDER HOUSE: Maintaining our 1715 structure is demanding. Pat Crowther has built a new bulkhead and done much scraping and repainting to keep the clapboards covered, along with many other maintenance tasks. Bob McDougall has devoted hours to the renovation of the Corn Crib since its arrival in June, along with other tasks inside and outside the museum. Other members of the Committee can often be seen working in the yard of the museum, seeing to its upkeep.

TAG SALE COMMITTEE: Eleanor Crowther and her Committee arranged another successful Town-Wide Tag Sale, a staple event of our yearly funding and important event on the town calendar.

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE: Susanne Anderson and her Committee have invented interesting, attractive and informative fundraising projects. New this year was the Spring Tea, Hat Program and Vintage Jewelry Sale along with a number of new products that can be seen on our Callander Cupboard page. The Portland Farms Exhibit continued to expand and was the subject of the 2010 Heritage Calendar. We look forward to the Farms Book planned for the coming year, and in June of 2010, the Secret Garden Tour promises to be another fascinating new event.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES: To begin the transition process to our new Society structure as stated in our bylaws, initial members for the Board of Trustees were nominated and elected. Trustees will provide long term planning and oversight for the Society. Elected were Bob McDougall, Chris Sullivan and Regina Woltmann.

ANNUAL NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS FOR EXECUTIVE BOARD: New officers are – President: Susanne Anderson, First Vice President: Deborah Ellsworth, Second Vice President: Martha Lutecki, Treasurer: James McCabe, Recording Secretary: Linda Cunningham, Corresponding Secretary: Joanne Luppi, Director (3 years): Ruth Freeburg, Director (one year - remainder of Jim Rau's term) George Gilbert. Gene Sullivan continues his term as Director.

PORTLAND PROGRAM: Bob McDougall concluded the Annual Meeting with an interesting and informative “12 Months Of Portland In 12 Minutes!” With his camera constantly at hand, he managed to capture a great sampling of the interesting events that happened around Portland during 2009.

As I leave the post of President, I would like to thank all the great volunteers who make the Society work possible, and keep the Society and Ruth Callander House Museum of Portland History alive and functioning. Most of all I would like to thank the members of the Board of Directors and Committee Chairs who have provided great assistance and support to me throughout this year – Susanne Anderson, Martha Lutecki, Jim McCabe, Ruth Freeburg, Linda Cunningham, Gene Sullivan, Deborah Ellsworth, Jim Rau, Chris Sullivan, Bob McDougall, Regina Woltmann, Eleanor Crowther and Pat Crowther. Best wishes to the new board for a great year, and welcome to our new board members, Joanne and George.

NOTES . . .

Historic Gas Lamp - Bob McDougall, Museum Director

We received an email inquiry about the derivation of the gas lamp pictured below, which was once a working fixture on Second Avenue, New York. It is a heavy steel casting with the marking "Heath and Smith, Portland, Conn." The History of Middlesex county 1635-1885 by J. H. Beers & Co states, "United States Stamping Company...The business was formerly conducted by the HEATH and SMITH Manufacturing Company, which was organized in 1869. Men of Progress Biographical Sketches and Portraits of Leaders in Business and Professional Life in and of the State of Connecticut, 1898 provides this glimmer into the history of the company, "HALL, John Henry, President of the Brainerd, Shaler & Hall Quarry Company, of Portland and Vice-President and Manager of Colt's Patent Firearms Manufacturing, of Hartford, was born in Portland, Connecticut, March 24, 1849... In 1870 he became one of the incorporators of the Heath & Smith Manufacturing Company, of Portland, which proved a failure. In 1877 he purchased a majority interest in the Pickering Governor under the style of T. R. Pickering & Company, which business in 1888 was incorporated as the Pickering Governor Company."

Secret Garden Tour of Portland - Sue Anderson, Ways and Means Chair

Plans are underway by the Historical Society for a garden tour fundraiser. The self-guided tour, Portland's Secret Gardens, will be held on June 12, 2010. The tour will showcase at least eight private gardens in Portland including the Betty Keser Scott Garden at the Ruth Callander House Museum of Portland History. The tour will also include light refreshments, the sale of houseplants, birdfeeders, birdhouses, along with a boutique of other garden gift items. The committee is looking for donations of teacups and houseplants, crafters to decorate birdhouses, as well as volunteers to help on the day of the tour. Anyone interested in helping in any of these ways, please call Sue at 860-342-0433. Funds raised from the garden tour will benefit the programs and the operation of the Society's Museum.

2010 Programs - Regina Woltmann - Program Chair

We would like to thank our many talented members who have so kindly volunteered and presented interesting historical programs over the years. If anyone would like to do a program for us or can suggest a program, we would be most appreciative.

February 23 - Portland Library, 7:30 pm - Oscar Hedstrom and the Indian Motorcycle by George Gilbert. George Gilbert has been a motorcycle enthusiast since the late 1960's. Portland resident, Oscar Hedstrom, came up in conversations with other motorcycle enthusiasts. Hedstrom's claim to fame was that he invented the Indian Motorcycle. George continued cycling while living on Gospel Lane in Portland and raising his family. George then had the opportunity to purchase land that was once owned by Oscar Hedstrom. Purchasing the property coupled with his ownership of an Indian Motorcycle spurred him to do more research on Mr. Hedstrom's fascinating life.

March 23 - Senior Center, 7:30 pm - Stories in Stone by Jelle deBoer, Ph.D. Dr. deBoer, Professor of Earth Science emeritus at Wesleyan University, will present information from his new book, Stories in Stone, which describes how early settlers discovered and exploited Connecticut's natural resources.

Town-Wide Tag Sale Meeting - Eleanor Crowther

The Town-Wide Tag Sale Committee will meet February 16 at 7:30 pm at the Ruth Callander House, 492 Main Street. All are welcome, fresh inspiration and energy needed!

William J. Van Beynum Award - Awards Committee

As a volunteer-driven organization, The Portland Historical Society, Inc. depends on the support of many in order to succeed. Therefore, we feel it is very important to recognize and value contributions made by our volunteers. In that spirit, the William J. Van Beynum Award was created in 2009 as a way to formally thank our members and others for their outstanding contributions of time, talent, or service to the Society's mission to preserve and protect the history of Portland. This award was named to honor the late William J. Van Beynum, a Portland resident, who tirelessly volunteered his time to research, promote, and document the history of Portland. His keen interest in historic preservation has inspired many to continue his work.

At the Society's Annual Meeting held in January 2010, recipients of the first Van Beynum Awards were: Ruth Freeburg, Claire Frisbie, Phyllis Frisbie, William Frisbie, and Ben Srb.

Any member of The Portland Historical Society, Inc. can nominate an individual or organization/business that has made a significant non-monetary contribution to preserve and protect Portland's past. Nomination forms can be found on page 6 of this newsletter, or obtained at the Ruth Callander House Museum of Portland History, 492 Main St, Portland.
