

Portland's 175th Anniversary Booklet

Deadline for submissions is April 1, 2016. No Joke!

Dear Friend of Portland:

March 6, 2016

This is an exciting time for Portland - our 175th Anniversary. In honor of this time and as a record of history, the Portland Historical Society is creating a Commemorative Booklet. This is your opportunity to leave a record of your business, family, activity, or organization in the town's archives, advertise to townspeople and support the Society in creating this informative booklet.

The booklet, 8 1/2 by 11 greyscale with a bound cover, is similar to the book done to celebrate the 150th Anniversary in 1991. It will contain thought-provoking historical articles and photographs, a timeline of Portland's history, a schedule of the Anniversary year's activities, along with advertisers' messages and a list of sponsors. The booklet will be distributed widely, first at the May 14 - Old Time Music and Arts Festival at Riverfront Park, and later, as copies last, throughout the Anniversary year.

Available advertising includes 1/8 page, 1/4 page, 1/2 page, full page and, for a premium, inside and outside covers. We are keeping prices for advertising at 1991 levels to put this historic record within reach of as many local businesses and townspeople as possible.

Businesses: Consider sharing the history of your business: founding date, founder's name, proprietor's name, present and/or historic photo of facility - interior or exterior.

Residents & former residents: Highlight family history, activities, memorials, congratulatory notes, school classes. Send a message!

Organizations: History of your organization, key facts in its contribution to the townspeople, important dates and members.

Please help us make this book a treasured keepsake and historical reference.
