

The Portland Historical Society, Inc.
William J. Van Beynum Award Nomination Form

The Portland Historical Society, Inc., a volunteer-driven organization, is a non-profit corporation that depends on the support of many in order to succeed. We feel that it is important to recognize and value contributions made by members and others. In that spirit, the Portland Historical Society created the William J. Van Beynum Award in 2009. This award recognizes an individual or organization/business for an outstanding contribution of time, talent, or service to the Society's mission to preserve and protect Portland's past. The award was established to honor the memory of William J. Van Beynum, who tirelessly volunteered his time to research, promote, and document the history of Portland.
